AFRICAN MISSION- ARY IN THE CITY

Rev. T. C. Vinson of the Presbyterian Mission Field Was Heard at the Presbyterian Church.

At both the morning and evening services yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church Rev. T. C. Vinson, who is a returned missionary from Africa, was the speaker. Rev. Vinson will be remembered in Bryan by a large per cent of the church-going people, as he used to be a supply pastor here for this church and has been away in the dark jungles of Africa carrying the word and the work of the Master to the worshippers of the heathen gods. His subject yesterday at the morning service was "Black Africa, White Unto the Harvest." The scripture lesson was read from the tenth chapter of St. Luke and his text was chosen from Luke 10:2. Rev. Vinson made a very interesting and forcible talk at the morning service as to conditions and needs of the people of that country. His description of the ungodly ways in which they live and the many needs of the missionary workers there was told in an interesting way and doubtless few people who heard him had ever stopped to consider the conditions there.

The night service was taken up in a description of the every-day life of the African. Many interesting stories, things that the speaker had actually witnessed, were told, and in each one a very impressive point was made, showing the needs of the missionary in this field to teach these people the way of right living. Those who heard Rev. Vinson have expressed a high regard for his work and those who did not hear him missed something that was of the best that has been heard in Bryan in a long time.

The Rev. Vinson arrived in the city Saturday afternoon and was entertained at the home of Major and Mrs. L. L. McInnis Sunday, and today is the guest of the pastor, Rev. Charlton Storey. He will be here for two days.

AS THE NEWS BREAKS

San Antonio, Texas, May 29.—The twenty-second annual meeting of the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers' Association, composed of cotton oil and cotton seed meal manufacturers of the state, was opened here today with upwards of 300 delegates attending. Preliminary business, including meetings of the rules and arbitration committees, on whose reports the work of the convention is largely based, was completed on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Matters of interest to the trade, including discussion of freight rates, new formulas for cotton seed oil and meal, and the promotion of the latter as a foodstuff, is the principal business before the meeting.

Denton, Texas, May 29.—The first annual convention of the newly-formed Texas Interdenominational School of Missions opened here today to continue to June 5, with a large attendance. Several speakers and teachers of national reputation have been secured for engagements by the program committee.

European and home missionary work will be taught from text books by leaders in the work. Mrs. Nannie Webb Curtis, a prominent figure in the State Women's Christian Temperance Union, was to make an address. Plans for forming a state federation of women's missionary societies were also to be discussed.

European hotel proprietors optimistically figure that the entire cost of the war will be paid promptly as soon as the regular annual American tourist seasons opens.—Boston Transcript.

The republican and progressive conventions will meet in Chicago in less than three weeks, so it is high time Chicago was strengthening her police force.—Florida Times-Union.

Milly—"I rode all the way up to Harlem in the same subway car with you the other day." Billy—"That's strange. I didn't see you." Milly—"Oh, I don't know. You had a seat, and I was standing."—Judge.

BAND CONCERT AT A. & M.

Quite a number of Bryan citizens availed themselves of the opportunity Sunday afternoon to hear the band concert at College by the A. & M. band, which was given under the direction of Band Master P. B. Day of that institution. The afternoon was ideal for car riding and those who are fortunate enough to possess cars were there in great numbers and the rest of us went out on the interurban to this enjoyable affair. There were 12 numbers rendered by the band and every one was a masterpiece within itself. Bandmaster Day, who is among the best in the country, has certainly trained his band this year to perfection and it is said among students of the institution that he gets better music each year, and it is the hope that next session, when the attendance is increased about 250, the band will be still larger and better.

Health Worry

only puts one further "under the weather." Often the best way out is make a decided change in the daily diet, for sound health is largely a matter of selecting right food.

Active brains and vigorous bodies require wholesome, easily digested food containing true nourishment, and it must include certain mineral elements, phosphate of potash, etc. These elements—lacking in many foods, but abundantly stored in the field grains—are supplied in splendid proportion in
